

Please leave the Wisconsin Do Not Call List alone. By allowing banks and other companies to contact former customers, you are opening up the opportunity to further weaken a law that has brought quality of life to thousands of state residents. We know enjoy quiet evenings at home without the threat of incessant phone calls from companies that we do not wish to do business with. Please strongly consider leaving the Wisconsin Do Not Call list alone. Thank you.